ThaiBMA Signed a Tripartite Cooperation Agreement with BPAM and IBPA in Pursuit of the Robust Development of Bond Markets in Southeast Asia.

The Thai Bond Market Association (ThaiBMA), Bond Pricing Agency Malaysia (BPAM), and Indonesia Bond Pricing Agency (IBPA) have signed a tripartite agreement on establishing trilateral cooperation among the three allied bond pricing agencies in Southeast Asia. The agreement was signed on 22 November 2012 at the 10th ASEAN+3 Bond Market Forum (ABMF) Meeting held at Shangri-La Hotel, Bangkok. The President/CEO of the three BPAs: Mr. Niwat Kanjanaphoomin; Mr. Meor Amri Meor Ayob; and Mr. Ignatius Girendroheru signed the agreement on behalf of ThaiBMA, BPAM, and IBPA respectively.

The tripartite agreement is an important initiative to strengthen regional collaborative effort among bond pricing agencies to further develop viable and efficient bond markets as well as to promote cross-border investment in the Southeast Asia region. As a first step, the three parties have agreed to exchange bond-related information with one another via a new link created on their websites. BPAM and IBPA data can be accessed through our website www.thaibma.or.th under the tab named "Bond Market ASEAN".
